

Valley Christian – First “All-Steinway” High School in California

For over 150 years, Steinway has made the world's finest pianos – and inspired the artists who make them sing.

In summer, 2007, the Valley Christian Conservatory became the first high school in California to be designated an “All-Steinway School.” The school purchased a Steinway “D” Concert Grand piano and a Steinway K-52 upright piano. Seven additional Boston pianos were also purchased, which are designed by Steinway & Sons. The pianos will be used by all Conservatory pianists and music students, in practice rooms, classes and recitals.

All-Steinway Schools demonstrate a commitment to excellence by providing their students and faculties with the best equipment possible for the study of music. That is why the only pianos owned by these schools and installed on their campuses – from the practice room to the recital hall – are designed by Steinway & Sons.

Since 1853, Steinway pianos have set an uncompromising standard for sound, touch, beauty, and investment value. Handcrafting each Steinway requires up to one full year – creating an instrument of rare quality and global renown. Not surprisingly, Steinway remains the choice of 9 out of 10 concert artists, and countless pianists, composers and performers around the world.

Steinway Concert Grand Model D

This piano is the overwhelming choice of concert artists and educational institutions throughout the world. A Steinway grand is an incomparable creation – a unique achievement that sets the world standard for how a piano should look, play and sound. But a Steinway piano is also an instrument that combines the joy of musical perfection with the security and reassurance of financial appreciation. According to Forbes, over the past ten years, the retail value of a Steinway concert grand has appreciated nearly 200%.

Boston Pianos

The Steinway-designed Boston piano is unrivaled in its class and unmatched in value and combines the highest musical standards with state-of-the-art technology to deliver a level of performance far superior to any instrument in its mid-price range. As the preferred piano of major music festivals, including Aspen, Tanglewood, Brevard and Bowdoin, the Boston piano has received rave reviews from prestigious music publications, as well as performing artists, music conservatories and piano educators worldwide.
